SUBMIT AN ABSTRACT OR FULL ARTICLE

INTENDED AUTHORS AND AUDIENCE

This journal publishes content intended for all librarians and library students and is written by early career librarians and library students

THE JOURNAL

E*ndnotes: The Journal of the New Members Round Table* is a peer-reviewed, scholarly journal that addresses research and issues of early career librarians and grad students. Endnotes accepts research and practical articles.

"BUT I HAVEN'T HAD ENOUGH TIME TO RESEARCH SOMETHING YET"

If you're a student, look back on your previous or current coursework. If you're in the first years of being a librarian, look back at your projects, programs, committees, research, teaching, organization, etc.

YOU HAVE SOMETHING YOU CAN PUBLISH ON

PUBLISHING

Each peer-reviewed edition of the journal will contain 2–4 scholarly articles written by members of NMRT as well as web site reviews and scholarly book reviews of titles relevant to librarians.

BASIC SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Articles should range from 2,000 – 4,000 words. Endnotes publishes research papers, technical papers, conceptual papers, case studies, and literature reviews.
