Connect with other ALA Student Chapter Leaders!

Have you ever wanted to get in touch with your fellow student chapter leaders? Perhaps you had a question about planning events, obtaining speakers, or just wanted to get in touch and build relationships.

ALA and the NMRT Student and Student Chapter Outreach Committee are reviving the ALA Student Chapter Leadership Connect Community for student leaders and chapter advisors to connect with each other.

To join, please visit <https://bit.ly/ALAstuchapt> and login to your ALA Connect account, then select JOIN. If you have any questions, please contact your SASCO Liaison via email.

Happenings

Call for Speakers

Would you be interested in sharing about your NMRT experience with an ALA student chapter? The Student and Student Chapter Outreach Committee (SASCOC) is looking for current and former NMRT members who would be willing to talk with graduate students about their experiences. If you are willing, please reach out to committee chair Alexander Dodd at adodd@umd.edu so that your name can be added to our list of potential speakers. Thank you in advance for your willingness to share with the profession!

Student Chapter Toolkit

The 2018 Emerging Leaders Team H (Adam Chang, Jewel Davis, Mea Warren, Elspeth Olson, Samantha Quiñon, and Philip Carter) worked with the New Members Round Table to create virtual toolkits usable by ALA student chapters and new professionals to aid in professional development and navigating some of the challenges of early library careers and professional engagement.

NMRT Member of the Month Spotlight: Jennie Garner

This month's NMRT Member of the Month Spotlight is Jennie Garner, Library Director at North Liberty Library (North Liberty, IA). To learn more about Jennie and her experience, visit the ALA NMRT Blog, <https://bit.ly/3HjdnoA>

NMRT Student Chapter of the Year Award

We are happy to announce that nominations are being accepted for the 2022 ALA Student Chapter of the Year Award, presented by the New Members Round Table. The deadline to apply is March 4, 2022.

Has your chapter had an outstanding year?

Has membership in your chapter increased?

Did your chapter develop and provide opportunities for members to participate in interesting and rewarding activities during Covid?

Do you have outstanding officers or members who should be recognized nationally?

If you answered YES, then you should apply to be the 2022 NMRT Student Chapter of the Year!

The purpose of the award is to recognize a chapter's outstanding contributions to the American Library Association, their school, and the profession. The intent of the award is to increase student involvement in ALA through student chapters, and to recognize future leaders in the profession.

The Student Chapter winner will receive $1,000 to help defray travel expenses to ALA Annual. The winning chapter and the runner up will each receive a certificate. Both will be recognized at the NMRT Student Reception at the 2022 ALA Annual Conference.

To apply, please complete the 2022 SCOTYA Nomination Form (<https://www.ala.org/rt/nmrt-student-chapter-year-award-scotya-committee>). E-mail the completed form and submit any supporting document in either Microsoft Word or Adobe PDF format to the committee chair, Jamie Kurumaji, at jamie.kurumaji@fresnolibrary.org.
